

Student Reward Announcement of Department of Electrical Engineering for Excellent Achievement from Academic Event Attendance

Aim: To encourage current CUEE BEng/MEng/PhD students who have produced excellent achievement from presenting their research work in academic events such as congress, conference, symposium and workshop.

Qualified Applicants:

- 1) must be full-time student of the department when applying for this reward.
- 2) must have given a technical presentation of academic paper at the academic event and have received an award (e.g. best paper award, best presentation/presenter award, etc.) from that attended academic event.
- 3) must be first author of the presented paper.

Supported Reward:

5,000 Baht for the student who has presented the academic paper and received the award.

The announcement has been approved by the departmental board committee meeting on 18 March 2022 and starts being effective from 18 March 2022 onwards.
